

REGISTER WITH EAPASA

EAPASA continues to encourage all Environmental Assessment Practitioners (EAPs) who have not submitted their applications to urgently submit a comprehensive Portfolio of Evidence on our online system. After 08 February 2022, “No person other than a registered environmental assessment practitioner, registered with a registration authority, may hold primary responsibility for the planning, management, coordination or review of environmental impact assessments and associated Environmental Management Programmes (EMPrs)” according to Regulation 14 of Section 24H.

Please visit www.eapasa.org to read more on the organisation or go to <https://registration.eapasa.org/> and register to become a member. EAPASA aims to promote the quality assurance of environmental assessment practice in South Africa and to ensure there is accountability on unethical EAPs.

The Registration Committee of EAPASA currently uses the principles of Recognition of Prior Learning to assess applicants against the six core competencies and associated assessment criteria of the national Qualification Standard. There are two categories for registration:

- (1) Candidate EAP, newly graduated without experience, and
- (2) Registered EAP with at least three years of relevant experience.

- Plant trees at home or workplace.
- Read more on the importance of protecting earth.
- Raise an awareness about Earth Day on social media platforms.
- Engage on a cleanup campaign.
- Encourage community members to make use of Eco-Friendly Products.
